GRYBB TEAM 4 RETROSPECTIVE FEEDBACK REVIEW 2

In the second sprint review , our web application had a lot of problems. Our CSS framework was not loading and the only functionality we had was the ability to log in. We were given feedback to not focus on the login functionality so much since that is not the main focus of the web application. We were told to devote more of our resources to fulfill the must-have requirements of the application